

2nd year of the conference Our Common Present – Changing society?

Faculty of Arts, Charles University in Prague, Celetná street 20, Prague

23rd March 2012

Keynote speakers

James Sandy Rikoon is a director of Community Food Systems and Sustainable Agriculture Program and Associate Dean for Research and Graduate Studies of College of Human Environmental Sciences, University of Missouri, USA. He focuses on rural sociology, environmentally sustainable agriculture, food security and political aspects of environmental conflicts.

<http://dass.missouri.edu/ruralsoc/faculty/rikoon-j.php>

<http://leopoldleadership.stanford.edu/fellows/rikoon>

Fritz Reusswig works as sociologist in Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research and teaches sociology at several German universities (Potsdam University, Offenbach University of Art and Design and Brandenburg University of Technology in Cottbus). He deals with the topic of consumption, lifestyles and their relationship to global environmental problems. Social construction of nature and the problem of sustainable cities also belong to the area of his interest.

<http://www.pik-potsdam.de/members/fritz/>

Hannes Palang is a director of Centre for Landscape and Culture at Estonian Institute of Humanities, Tallinn University and president of Permanent European Conference for the Study of the Rural Landscape. Graduated in geography, he deals with the cultural landscape and its changes, landscape assessment and management, and public participation in these processes.

<https://www.etis.ee/portaal/isikuCV.aspx?PersonVID=1058&lang=et>

